Conservation Works!

- Illustrating nature conservation success stories — how many species are on the rebound across Europe, in some cases from the brink of extinction.
- And highlighting challenges and solutions to ensure healthy ecosystems.
- Wild Wonders of Europe will inspire millions.
- We invite you to be a part of this powerful, strategic communications opportunity.
- Bring Wild Wonders of Europe to your city.
- Sponsor the tour and reach a projected audience of over 20 million visitors.

WILD WONDERS[®] OF EUROPE

Wild Wonders of Europe is brought to you by: Peter Cairns, Florian Möllers, Staffan Widstrand, and Bridget Wijnberg. All four Directors have dedicated their professional lives to conservation and bring this passion to the Wild Wonders of Europe initiative. Peter Cairns, Florian Möllers and Staffan Widstrand are award-winning photographers, and members of the International League of Conservation Photographers. Bridget Wijnberg is an environmental scientist with an extensive background in nature tourism.

Life Exhibitions is the global touring partner for the outdoor exhibition with over 10 years experience in the industry having pioneered the concept and brings the exhibition to North America in cooperation with North American Tour Director Susan Bruce.
